OPENING PROGRAM FOR SAN DIEGO EXPOSITION

Great Crowd Will Begin To Gather Thursday Afternoon for the Formal Opening of the Gates at Midnight.

San Diego, Dec. 26.—The program for the three days and nights of celebration upon the occasion of the opening of the San Diego exposition has just been made known. The celebration begins on the evening of Thursday, December 21st, and close on the night of Saturday, January 2nd, the fitting ending being a carnival on the Isthmus, the amusement street of the exposition.

Visitors will have access to the grounds at 7 o'clock on the night of December 21st. At this same hour the dinner to press representatives will be given in one of the downtown cafes. Dedication of the Spreckels music pavilion will begin at 8:30, and the official opening ceremonies will start at 11 o'clock and continue to the stroke of midnight. At midnight the festivities will start with the booming of cannon, the blowing of whistles and the many spectacular features planned by the exposition.

The program for New Year's day begins with sightseeing trips in the morning and the official dedicatory ceremonies on the grounds at 11 o'clock. The program arranged will fill the balance of the day and evening, the dedication of the Woman's building, a banquet by the women's board of the exposition and the president's banquet in Cafe Christoulo, on the grounds, being major features.

A great military and naval parade will be seen on the morning of January 2, and during the afternoon a monster automobile parade will take place. The official reception of the woman's board, a luncheon and sightseeing trips fill the afternoon and evening, and at night the crowds will gather on the Isthmus for the carnival.

San Diego is making every preparation possible for the proper care of her visitors on this occasion, and the exposition opening celebration committee is hard at work upon details of the program as outlined above, and the proper decoration and lighting of the city.

RAILROADS REFUSE BOOZE AFTER JANUARY 1

Liquor Shipments to Arizona After January 1 Will Not Be Accepted by Any of the Roads.

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 26.—Superintendent F. D. King stated this morning that after the first of January the El Paso & Southwestern railroad will not accept liquors of any kind to be brought into Arizona. Shippers have been notified that liquors destined for points in Arizona must be shipped so that they will arrive before the first day of the New Year. The railroads have been advised by their attorneys that it will be unlawful for any transportation company to bring liquor or wine into the state under the prohibition amendment.

The Southern Pacific is also requiring wine and liquor shippers in general that, owing to the new prohibition law in Arizona, which becomes effective January 1, it will be necessary for the railroads serving that state to decline to accept for transportation to Arizona points any shipments of intoxicants after January 1. Likewise, it will not be possible to accept such shipments which cannot be delivered at destination on or prior to December 31, 1914.
